STEM Careers

Registered Nurse

Job Description: Assists doctors with patients. Provides care and health education to patients.

What does a Registered Nurse do?
- Monitors and records patient symptoms.
- Maintains and organizes detailed records for all patients.
- Prepares for and assists with patient examinations.
- Modifies ongoing treatment of patients as needed with doctor approval.
- Instructs individuals and groups on health education and disease prevention.

Your Interests:
- Do you like helping people?
- Do you like learning about biology, especially anatomy?
- Do you enjoy organizing and problem solving?
- Do you communicate well with others?

Outlook: Faster than Average

Average Salary - $31.71 hourly, $65,950 annual
Projected Job Openings – 1,207,400 over the next 10 years

Education/Program of Study:

- Training in vocational schools, On the job training, or Associate's degree in Nursing